Registration of Corporations

A corporation is a juridical person created by operation of law and registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. A corporation can either be stock or non-stock company regardless of nationality. Such company, if 60% Filipino and 40% foreign-owned, is considered a Filipino corporation. If more than 40% foreign-owned, it is considered a domestic foreign-owned corporation.

The OneSEC processing is completely seamless and fully automated in the absence of human intervention on the part of the Commission starting from the name verification on the proposed corporate name, until the issuance of the Digital Certificate of Incorporation.

The system aims to promote promptness, reliability and efficiency. However, the registrant has to conform with the following conditions within a period of one day:

1. The company classification is "All Filipino"

DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES – ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT BUREAU (DENR-EMB)

Source: DENR EMB Citizen's Charter 2019 (accessed as of 10 February 2022)*

Every proposed project or undertaking which is projected to have significant adverse impact to the quality of the environment is covered by the Philippine Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) system. This includes major expansion, rehabilitation, and/or modification of existing projects as well as resumption of projects that have stopped operations for a prolonged period.

To determine coverage, proposed projects or undertakings shall be screened according to the following categories:

Category A – project undertakings which are classified as Environmentally Critical Projects (ECPs) under Presidential Proclamation No. 2146 (s. 1981), Proclamation No. 803 (s. 1996), and any other projects that may later be declared as such by the President of the Philippines. Proponents of these projects implemented from 1982 onwards are likewise required to secure an ECC.

Category B – projects or undertakings which are not classified as ECP under Category A, but which are likewise deemed to significantly affect the quality of the environment by virtue of being located in an Environmentally Critical Area (ECA) as declared under Proclamation No. 2146 and according to the parameters set forth in the attached guidelines. Proponents of these projects implemented from 1982 onwards are likewise required to secure an ECC.

Category C – project or undertakings not falling under Category A or B which are intended to directly enhance the quality of the environment or directly address existing environmental problems.

Category D – projects or undertakings that are deemed unlikely to cause significant adverse impact on the quality of the environment according to the parameters set forth in the Screening Guidelins. These projects are not covered by the Philippine EIS system and are not required to secure an ECC. However, such non-coverage shall not be construed as an exemption from compliance with other environmental laws and government permiting requirements.

FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION (FDA)

Source: FDA Website (accessed as of 10 May 2022)

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is the national health product regulatory agency mandated to ensure the safety, efficacy, and quality of health products for the protection of public health.

Through its Centers, FDA issues authorizations in the form of Licenses-to-Operate (LTO) for establishments, and Certificates of Product Registration (CPR) or Notification (CPN) for health products. These authorizations are granted only to those entities that are determined to be compliant with the instituted standards and after appropriate evaluation procedures. These pre-market activities are strengthened by the conduct of post-market surveillance activities as primarily implemented by the Field Regulatory Operations Office (FROO).

These regulatory tools work in synergy to ensure that products made available in the market continuously comply with the standards. This ultimately ensures that consumers have access to reliable and safe products that promote public health.
